SLCC POLICIES

Registration: A non-refundable of $50 per new student is required at registration; the returning students would need to pay the registration fee $30 to reenter SLCC if they left the school over 2 months without informing SLCC.

Returned check penalty: If any check got returned, there will be a $30 charge for returned check.

Dress code: First month, the uniform was not required, but shoes are required. After first month, the uniform and shoes are required to wear in our class. For safety reason, the students are not permitted to wear any accessories in class; long hair must be tied back. No change or return for items sold out of our school. Parents or students cannot return clothes or shoes or weapons or equipment they bought from our school for refund or exchange.

Cancellation: no refund will be given for any cancellation after the students registered the school.

Missed Lesson Make Up: you shall make up the missed lessons within your pay period. For any reason including family emergency, your lesson credits will be expired at the end of that year. Also, you need to let us know ahead of time if you need to make up classes after due date due to family emergency; otherwise you can't make up the classes. Your new cycle will start from the first date after last due date, the classes you make up will be your credits on your new payment cycle.

Assistant Teachers: Master will have assistant teachers to teach lessons for him when master needs to, SLCC will not give notice for emergency or short time teaching by other assistants. If the students couldn't finish classes by due date due to the classes taught by assistants, we will not issue credits or extend due date to the students.

Performance Team: the Performance Team Students will be selected by SLCC Master, a withdrawal notice might be applied to Performance Team Students if they missed many performance lessons without telling master or did not participate our events when master required them to perform.

Dates & Events: Student parents or students have responsibility to be aware of all school activities and the dates the school are open or closed. The school will post notice on Wechat(Chinese group) and What's App(English group) before the events, the students and parents are suggested to take notes right the way whenever they saw notice. Master cannot guarantee each absent will be reached out to every student due to emergency situation.

- Care of students: SLCC is not responsible for providing before or after class care for the students. Parents with students under the age of 12 are suggested to remain near school during the class. We are not responsible if your kids had any needs from you, the students are not to be left at the school for excessive time before or after the class.
- Please arrive 5 minutes earlier before the class starts. Anyone staying in Kung Fu area before or after class will take their own risk.
- Students will take class at one location only, unless they are in special program and we allow them to take classes at both locations.

The class schedule is subject to change without notice.
